THE JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL

Part C: Agreement And Release For Participation In International Studies Program

I, _____, am a student at the John Marshall Law School (“the Law School”), a visiting student taking classes offered by the John Marshall Law School, or a party participating in such classes on a continuing legal education (CLE) basis. I have chosen to participate in an International Program sponsored by the Law School, in collaboration with international host organizations, in Beijing, China during the time indicated above (“the Program”). I understand and acknowledge that my participation in the Program is wholly voluntary. In consideration of being allowed to participate in the Program, I agree as follows:

1. I represent and warrant that I am and will be covered throughout the Program by a policy of comprehensive health and accident insurance which provides coverage for injuries and illnesses I sustain or experience overseas, and, more specifically, in the country in which I will be living and/or traveling while on the Program. I understand that where possible my insurance should include coverage of medical evacuation services. By my signature below, I certify that my health insurance policy will adequately cover me while outside the United States; and, I absolve the Law School of all responsibility and liability for any injuries (including death), illnesses, claims, damages, charges, bills and/or expenses I may incur while I participate in the Program. I agree to report to the Law School any physical or mental condition I have which may require special medical attention or accommodation during the Program at least thirty (30) days prior to departure and I authorize the Law School to disclose my medical information on a need to know basis as may be necessary to provide medical treatment and/or reasonable accommodation.

2. I understand that although the Law School will attempt to maintain the Program as described in its publications and brochures, the Law School reserves the right to make changes to the Program itinerary at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and the Law School shall not be liable for any loss whatsoever to me by reason of any such cancellation or change. The Law School is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers that may result due to operational and/or itinerary changes, regardless of whether the Law School makes a flight arrangement. Any additional expense resulting from the above will be paid by me. Where the Law School has arranged for housing, the Law School reserves the right to substitute hotels or accommodations or housing of a similar category at any time. Specific room and housing assignments are within the sole discretion of the Law School.

3. I understand and acknowledge that the Law School assumes no responsibility or liability, in whole or in part, for any delays, delayed or changed departure or arrival times, fare changes, lost of passport, dishonors of hotel, airline or vehicle rental reservations, missed carrier connections, sickness, disease, injuries (including death), losses, damages, weather, strikes, acts of God, circumstances beyond the control of the Law School, force majeure, war, quarantine, civil unrest, public health risks, criminal activity, terrorism, expense, accident, injuries, damage to property, bankruptcies of airlines or other service providers, inconveniences, cessation of operations, mechanical defects, failure or negligence of any nature however caused in connection with any accommodations, restaurant, transportation, or other service or for any substitution of hotels or of common carriers, with or without notice, or for any additional expense occasioned by any of the foregoing. If due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors I am required to spend additional nights, the Law School will not be responsible for my hotel, transfers, meal costs, or other expenses. My baggage and personal property are transported at my risk entirely. The Law School will not be responsible for any additional travel I engage in before, during or after the scheduled Program.

4. I understand that my conduct will reflect on the Law School and I agree to conduct myself in a professional manner. The Law School reserves the right to decline to accept or retain me in the Program at any time should my actions or general behavior impede the operation of the Program or the rights or welfare of any person. Similarly, if my conduct violates any policy or procedure of the Law School, I understand that I may be required to leave the Program at the sole discretion of the Law School's employees, agents, and representatives, and I may be referred to the appropriate Law School officials for further disciplinary or other action. In such an event, no refund will be made for any unused portion of the Program.

5. The right is reserved by the Law School, in its sole discretion, to cancel the Program or any aspect thereof prior to departure; and, in the Law School's sole discretion to cancel the Program or any aspect thereof after departure, requiring that all participants return to the United States if the Law School determines or believes that any person is or will be in danger if the Program or any aspect thereof is continued.

6. In the event the Program is cancelled by the Law School before or during the trip, I will be refunded the fees I paid to the Law School pro rata for the unused portion of the Program. The Law School is not responsible for the refund of expenses or penalties for transportation or room and board due to cancellation of the Program for any reason.

7. I understand and acknowledge that I have received and reviewed the U.S. Consular Information, as well as the Centers for Disease Control information, on travel to, in and around my destinations; that I am aware of and understand the risks and dangers of travel to, in, and around my destinations, including but not limited to the dangers to my own health and personal safety that may be posed by the use of public transportation in my destinations, and by civil unrest, political instability, terrorism, crime, violence, and disease in my destinations. I assume, knowingly and voluntarily, each of these risks and all of the other risks that could arise out of or occur during my travel to, from, in, or around my destinations.

8. To the extent I participate in field trips during the Program, I acknowledge that my participation in these activities is not required by the Law School and is wholly voluntary. I understand and acknowledge that I may face an increased risk of injury or death due to civil unrest, violence, terrorism, crime or political instability by traveling in my destinations. I assume knowingly and voluntarily each of these risks which could arise out of or occur during my travel to, from and in and around my destinations.

9. I understand that although the Law School has made every reasonable effort to assure my safety while participating in the Program, there are unavoidable risks in overseas travel and I release and promise not to sue the Law School, its employees and agents, for any damages or injury (including death) cause by or relating to my participation in the Program except for such damages or injury as may be caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Law School or its employees or agents.

10. I agree that this Agreement is to be construed under the laws of the State of Illinois, USA and that if any portion is held invalid, the balance shall continue in full force and effect. Should there be any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement that would require judicial involvement, such dispute shall be decided in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, USA.

11. I represent that I am at least 18 years of age or, if not, that I have secured below the signature of my parent or guardian as well as my own. I have the right to consult with an attorney or other advisor before signing this Agreement.

12. I acknowledge that I have read, understand and will abide by each of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
