

知 CHINA IP ROAD SHOW 演

IP Protection in China—What Companies in the “Heart of America” Need to Know Now

Friday, October 20, 2017
8:30 a.m. – 4:15 p.m. CDT

The John Marshall Law School
315 S. Plymouth Court
Chicago, IL 60604

The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office’s China Intellectual Property (IP) Road Show comes to Chicago, Illinois, bringing together policy makers and thought leaders on China IP issues from the U.S. government, academia, and practitioners—including local business people and IP experts—to share insights that will benefit U.S. IP rights holders. The program is one of a series of China IP Road Shows that the USPTO is conducting across the United States.

Topics to be covered include:

- Overview of intellectual property protection in China
- IP enforcement in China
- How to enforce IP in the United States
- U.S.-China technology competition and collaboration

Register to attend at:

www.eventbrite.com/e/china-ip-roadshow-registration-36618015470

There is no charge to attend. Space is limited; registration is on a first-come basis.

Questions about the program can be directed to Arthur Yuan at ayuan@jmls.edu.

UNITED STATES
PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

HOSTED BY:

